Universal Competency Framework

Sample Report

It has been generated from responses provided by:

Self: 1

Manager(s): 1

Colleagues: 3

Direct reports: 2

Others: 2

Date: 10/17/2018

This Report contains confidential information which should not be imparted to unauthorized persons.

Introduction

Constructive feedback is increasingly recognised as a key to enhancing managerial effectiveness .

This report provides you with detailed feedback on your skills, abilities, personal attributes and other job relevant characteristics, as seen from a number of different perspectives: specifically your own, your manager's, and, if participating, your direct reports', colleagues' and 'others' (e.g. internal clients - as selected by you). It is based on the analysis of responses to the Perspectives on Management Competencies questionnaire which you and these other people completed recently.

In using this report it is important to remember that the information it contains is a reflection of different peoples' perceptions of you at a particular point in time. It does not represent some absolute, unchanging, all consuming truth. Nevertheless, the detailed analysis it permits can enable you to achieve new insights into your own strengths, and also alert you to aspects of your behaviour which could be proving a hindrance to your success in both the short and longer term. Such increased self awareness can, in turn, help you to maximise your effectiveness and develop your full potential .

It is recommended that you read through your report with a trained facilitator.

Importance Summary

This section shows how you and your manager have rated each of the competencies in terms of their importance to success in your job. Your own importance ratings are indicated in the first bar from top; your manager's importance ratings are indicated in the second bar.

Key to diagrams:

- 1= not at all important
- 2= not very important
- 3= moderately important
- 4= very important
- 5= extremely important

Competency Summary

This section summarizes how you have been rated by your various (groups of) raters on each of the competencies. These are the average of the ratings on the individual questions which make up a given competency. This section will enable you to see at a glance how your self perception compares with how others see you. It can be used as a basis for identifying the competencies in need for further exploration.

Your own ratings are represented by the first bar from the top, followed by your manager’s ratings in the second bar. If other groups of raters have participated, the next bars indicate the ratings of your colleagues, your direct reports and others respectively. The values summarize the average of the ratings on the four questions forming a competency. The ratings of a group of raters have been averaged across the group.

Please note: Where ‘No Evidence’ has been indicated by a rater, the average rating for any question is based on the ratings given by the remaining assessors in that group.

REPORT COMMENTARY

This report was generated using the SHL online Standard Multirater Feedback System. It includes information from the Perspectives on Management Competencies (PMC) questionnaire. The use of this questionnaire is limited to those people who have received specialist training in its use and interpretation. The report herein is generated from the results of a questionnaire answered by the respondent(s) and substantially reflects the answers made by them. Due consideration must be given to the subjective nature of questionnaire-based ratings in the interpretation of this data. This report has been generated electronically - the user of the software can make amendments and additions to the text of the report.
